

documents are consistent with my memory that I picked up the shredder for Mrs. Stark and returned it a week later.

"During the shredding job we decided that there were simply too many documents to shred. At Mrs. Stark's request we took some of the documents she asked to be destroyed out to the Stark Ranch and burned them there. John Creswell and Earl Kelly were with me when we burned the documents. This was done at about the same time as the shredding, which would have been mid-1994.

"During my 33 years of employment by Mrs. Stark and her Estate, this was the only time that I picked up a shredder for her. This was the only time that I shredded, burned or otherwise destroyed documents at her request or at the request of any one working for her. I am not aware of any documents being destroyed by Mrs. Stark or at her request at any other time.

"Further, affiant sayeth not."
